Local Business Highlight

Our goal is to highlight a local business each month in the newsletter. To see your favorite business, or a small business you own, highlighted, please contact bridlespurhomes@gmail.com

This month's business highlight is Crows Coffee in Red Bridge! Stop in for coffees, teas, pastries, breakfast items, and good vibes. Photo courtesy of Crows Coffee website.

Other Information

- The city will have an "Un-Dumpster Day" on Saturday, April 22nd at South-Broadland Presbyterian Church on 7850 Holmes Road. Drop off donations, participate in family-friendly earth day activities, drop off hazardous waste, and more. Flier attached.
- The neighborhood will have a trash and yard waste dumpster on May 13th for all residents who have paid dues. Location of the dumpsters will be across the street from Red Bridge Elementary School at 107th and Terr.
- The neighborhood garage sale will be the weekend of May 4 - 6th. The neighborhood will advertise the garage sale in the KC Star and the Martin City Telegraph to drive traffic! New garage sale signs will be located off Holmes and Wormald this year!

New Neighbors

- Welcome to Jenna Haith! Jenna recently moved to Bridlespur from Leawood. She owns a web development and digital marketing company called Sparklight Solutions LLC. Jenna is looking for furniture and household items - so if you're doing any spring cleaning, please keep her in mind! You can email her at Jennah42@gmail.com.
